

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

HAILEY MICAELA MACE,

Defendant.

Case No. 21-CR-140-JFH

OPINION AND ORDER

Before the Court is a sealed joint motion for continuance (“Motion”) filed by Defendant Hailey Micaela Mace (“Mace”) and the United States of America (“Government”). Dkt. No. 81. For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED. The Court will continue the current trial setting as to Mace only and will place her case on a visiting judge docket set for October 31, 2022. All previously-set scheduling dates related to Mace’s co-defendant Josiah Gammill (“Gammill”) remain in effect. See Dkt. No. 80 (setting trial for October 3, 2022).¹

The Motion falls under § 3161(h)(7)(A) of the Speedy Trial Act. This section permits a federal district court to exclude any period of delay resulting from a continuance if “the judge granted such continuance on the basis of his findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). A court must orally or in writing set forth its reasons for granting an ends of justice continuance and make findings that a continuance is in the best interest of the defendant and the public. Id. The statute permits a court to consider whether “the failure to grant such a continuance ... would deny counsel for the defendant ... the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.” Id. at § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv). The Tenth Circuit has been clear that an ends of justice continuance should not be granted “cavalierly” and it was intended to be a “rarely used tool.” United States v. Williams, 511 F.3d 1044, 1048-49 (10th Cir. 2007).

¹ Although the general rule is that defendants indicted together should be tried together, United States v. Martinez, 76 F.3d 1145, 1152 (10th Cir. 1996), the Court has discretion to sever co-defendants’ trials pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 14(a).

In United States v. Toombs, 574 F.3d 1262 (10th Cir. 2009), the Tenth Circuit limited the circumstances in which an ends of justice continuance can be granted and emphasized that this should be a rarely used procedural tool. The parties must provide the district court a sufficient record to determine why the facts stated in a motion for continuance “result[] in the need for additional time.” Id. at 1271. This requires the parties to provide specific information about the need for a continuance, and the district court may need to hold a hearing before granting an ends of justice continuance. Id. at 1272-73. A district court must also give significant weight to the public’s interest in a speedy trial, and the public’s interest is generally served by strict adherence to the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act. Id. at 1273.

The Court finds good cause to grant Mace’s Motion for the reasons stated in the sealed Motion. Dkt. No. 81. The Court further finds Mace has executed a speedy trial waiver, asking the Court to exclude any period of delay for an ends of justice continuance. Dkt. No. 82. In addition to considering Mace’s interests, the Court has considered the public’s interest in the speedy resolution of criminal cases and finds that a limited ends of justice continuance will not subvert the public’s interest in the prompt prosecution of criminal matters.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the sealed joint motion to continue filed at Dkt. No. 81 is GRANTED. The jury trial set for October 3, 2022 at 8:45 a.m. is stricken as to Mace only. The following amended scheduling order is hereby entered:
